KFS Sp. z o.o. uses cookies on this website. Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer or other device by websites that you visit. This page explains the cookies we use and what we use them for, and lets you turn them on or off. (Some cookies are necessary for our website to work properly.) Our website uses cookies to make the website easier to use, to support the provision of information and functionality to you, as well as to provide us with information about how the website is used so that we can make sure it is as up to date, relevant and error free as we can. Further information about the types of cookies that are used on our website is set out box below. However, please be aware that restricting or blocking cookies set on our website may impact the functionality or performance of the website or prevent you from using certain services provided through the website.

Strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are essential for the use of the features and services on our website.

If you block these cookies, we cannot guarantee access to the services provided through our website or be sure how our website will perform during your visit.

Analytics cookies

Analytics cookies help us understand how visitors use our website. For example, they collect information about which pages on our website or functions are most frequently used by visitors. We use this information to improve our website and provide a better user experience.

Examples of how we use these cookies include:

- Monitoring and maintaining statistics on the use of our website.
 - Improving our website by evaluating any errors that arise.
